Meet us

We are Fevernova Mobile. Your personal guide to the world of mobile solutions. Bring innovations to your life. Simplify the complex to the optimal with us. Enjoy the results.

We mean to hear your ideas while they don't even come yet to your mind. Our passion is to be on the wave of technologies picking and constructing only suitable solutions for each project. Eye-catching design created with accuracy and precision according to the latest trends, clear structure of the app, optimized code and meeting the deadlines guarantee successful launch of the app.

Our mission

We bring a new level of service to the world of the mobile development. We want every project to become masterpiece, unique and essential for users. We value our clients and their ideas as our own ones. We follow the art of small steps remembering that top results are achieved by the combination of constant work, deep knowledges and drops of talent.

Principles and values

- Humanity. We believe in the potential of every person we work with. That's why we don't have mediocre people in our team. We appreciate higher potential in every of us putting our efforts to activate it. That is why as a final we aim to deliver simple and useful solutions to simplify and enjoy life as is.
- Time. We value time. We prefer to spend it with a maximum quality in every sphere of our life. So that at the end of our paths we won't regret of what we did or we didn't do.
- Ideas. We believe in ideas and creativity that impact a lot on the final results. Going step by step and picking the best ideas we achieve the perfectionism in our works.
- Trust. We think that trust is one of the core values. It's not born on the paper neither in the court. It's something that is born before you even started to work. Based on our values and values of our partners exactly trust brings the new taste to our mutual relationship.

Our clients say about us

● Peter R.

We have been successfully working on iOS Android version of our social app with the help of their amazing team. Thank you guys!

● Jason O.

Received all the help I needed, no wasted time or effort. Always quick to respond to my email questions, comments, and requests, delivered finished product on time.

● Anna T.

They are patient in explaining technicalities to me and responsive to each of my questions. I enjoy working with them and it's going very well.

● David B.

I spent a lot of time looking for programming expertise. This long time has been rewarded with the opportunity to work with Fevernova Mobile. They helped us to improve the business process. The quality of communication is top notch and their knowledge is too.
