OUR TESTIMONIALS

The MageDirect team has been a true pleasure to work with. Extremely competent coders, great rates, excellent communication. Venturing into a new Magento build is incredibly stressful, and I'm very happy to know I have these guys (and gals) in my corner! Would highly recommend!

Stallard Technologies

Brian Paulette, Creative Director

I cannot recommend MageDirect team highly enough. They are great to work with and their ability to interpret requirements is excellent. This team are reliable, delivers on time and have the technical ability! I am very glad I found them.

VanessaGrey

Simon Grey, CEO

I have done with this company several projects and I have received more I could have imagined. MageDirect has shown high expertise and willing to help me with every part of my projects without trying to bill for each pronounced word. I'm really satisfied with MageDirect and recommend this company.

AmeriGiftBaskets

Alexei Zolotarevskiy, Owner

As the leading ecommerce company for wall decoration in Switzerland we depend on high quality programming standards. With Ievgen and his team we have a partner who succeeds in any difficulties in backend and frontend projects. We are really happy with MageDirect and don't want to miss the programmers in our team anymore.

WHY US

We are certified eCommerce experts and our work is an art for us. For MageDirect Team, eCommerce development is not about simple coding, as this job requires a deep understanding of business and software science. It's about the combination of complex software architecture, design and marketing in one web application.

We are not usual outsourcing company that has Magento or any other eCommerce service in its commercial proposal, we are the team of specialists that have been working with Magento since the first versions of this eCommerce platform.

We are not coding for fun, we are meeting business challenges.

TOP QUALITY GUARANTEED

Sacrificing quality over time or price is never an option for us. At MageDirect, eCommerce developers follow the best practices of software engineering to deliver stable solutions to your project.

KEEPING PACE WITH TRENDS

At MageDirect, you can hire eCommerce developer, which will pursue the goal to minimize risks and make your solution a fail-free environment. To save your time and money, we apply the latest trends in the development and quality assurance.

ONE STOP SERVICE

MageDirect offers full stack services – from developing of the eCommerce store to implementing and ensuring excellent customer support. Also, we are specialized in SEO, internet marketing, code audit and many other services for your business.

CUSTOMER-ORIENTED DEVELOPERS

With a clear focus on customer satisfaction, at MageDirect, we strive to provide the best eCommerce developers and solutions for your company. Our strategy is to develop a transparent relationship with the customer that will lead to a successful partnership.

OUR VALUES

FLEXIBILITY OF SOLUTIONS

During the development of eCommerce solutions for the client, we think about how this solution can be re-used or finalized in the future, in order to be able to adjust to the constant changes of the client's business.

PREDICTABILITY

We try to create predictable processes so that the client is aware of what will be done and when. Any postponement of work is justified, and this is notified in advance.

CONSTANT IMPROVEMENT OF SKILLS

To create competitive solutions for business, you should constantly learn something new. MageDirect specialists are regularly improving their practical and theoretical skills.

INTEGRITY

In the work, we maintain a close communication with clients, so they know exactly what they are going to receive and from our side, we know which steps to take to create a suitable and efficient solution. That is the MageDirect way to successful partnership.

PERSONAL APPROACH

MageDirect agency offers clear and simple terms and conditions. Customers of our agency are our main priority, so we do everything to make the cooperation mutually beneficial.

QUALITY

We do not compromise quality over time or price. The team of professional developers and QA specialists proudly stands by its share of work. Our eCommerce agency hold ourselves and customers to extremely high standards of performance, ethics and responsibility and always pursue the goal to present our work according to set expectations, on time or faster.
